

Brooke Randolph

A person's weakness is an overextension or overuse of their strength.

	Strengths	Weakness
D	Decisive Independent Efficient Competitive Determined Courageous Assertive Direct Confident Strong-willed	Impatient Self-sufficient Never slows down Attacks first Stubborn Reckless Unbending Controlling Imposing Aggressive Domineering Dictating Blunt
I	Enthusiastic Talkative Optimistic Outgoing Personable Persuasive Energetic	Excitable Talks too much Unrealistic Disorganized Unfocused Undisciplined Manipulative Explosive Discredits Overly emotional Sarcastic
S	Loyal Stable Systematic Dependable Agreeable Listening Supportive Consistent Patient Accommodating Tactful	Resistant to change Over accommodating Slower-paced Unwilling to take charge Indecisive Non-communicative Avoids conflict Passive Indecisive Sensitive Eventually explodes
C	Analytical Serious Conscientious Intuitive Orderly Industrious Critical thinker Detail oriented Precise Cautious High standards	Critical Unsociable Worries too much Overly-sensitive Perfectionistic Fears criticism Avoidant Detached Aloof